2016 & 2017 Best Resort in Alaska Readers Choice Winner, Northwest Meetings + Events Magazine

Legendary Waterfall Resort Alaska is known the world over for Alaska's best fishing lodge. An astounding number of king and silver salmon, halibut, lingcod, and more than 20 other species of sport fish are reeled in by guests year after year. With a one-to-one guest to staff ratio, Waterfall Resort will ensure that your group has the best ever sport-fishing adventure, from arrival to departure. The largest fishing fleet in Alaska welcomes anglers of all skill levels, from first-timers to seasoned pros, and they're committed to making every guest's stay with them their best fishing trip yet.

CORPORATE EVENTS

Waterfall Resort has hosted more corporate events and group gatherings than any other Alaska fishing resort. Fortune 500 clients count on the experienced crew for one-of-a-kind gatherings focused on leadership, incentive travel, and customer appreciation. Plus, of course, the team-building aspects of epic, full-service guided sport fishing.

Amenities include oceanfront guest quarters and executive-style suites, hearty meals in the Dining Room, camaraderie in the Lagoon Saloon, and meeting space with audiovisual equipment to host groups of 25 to 92. Group rates are available, and buyouts of the 52-acre property may be scheduled outside season dates.

HOW TO GET THERE

Accessible only by air and sea, Waterfall Resort is located on Prince of Wales Island in Southeast Alaska's 1,100-island Alexander Archipelago, near the famed Inside Passage, the historic settlers' route turned interisland marine highway. Just a short floatplane flight from Ketchikan—the Alaska port town just 90 minutes from Seattle, Washington—and you're transported to another world.

"A once in a lifetime Alaska adventure." -Forbes Travel

Located in the wilds of Southeast Alaska, Steamboat Bay Fishing Club is an exclusive venue for angling adventures. Set amid the majestic Tongass National Forest, the Club presides on remote Noyes Island. 31 uninhabited square miles provide luxurious privacy for an idyllic getaway. At the same time, Club guests enjoy the nearest access to the region's most celebrated fishing spots, storied locations such as Pineapple, Rockpile, and Granite.

Simply put, Steamboat Bay Fishing Club is the closest lodge to the best fishing in Southeast Alaska. And after fishing, guests can enjoy bay kayaking, a Slavic banyastyle sauna, the hot tub, and wildlifewatching from the nature trail, with an eye out for humpback whales and bald eagles. Evening cooking demonstrations in the display kitchen underscore the flavors of fresh regional fare such as wild game, local seafood, and organic greens grown in the Club's greenhouse garden.

The Club hosts up to 24 anglers in two distinct guesthouses, with 16 in The Lodge and eight in The Residence. Both feature Alaska Native art, cedar paneling and cabinetry, and reclaimed fixtures from the 1920s-era cannery that once flourished on the site.
